Where is God in the midst of suffering?

October 11, 2020

Text: Psalm 23

What are some of the valleys you have walked through?

Looking back, can you recognize God's presence in the midst of those times?

What purposes do you think God might have for you present circumstances?

What needs to happen in order to break down any walls between you and God?

What can you do on a daily basis to become more aware of God's presence?

Who is someone you can be a comfort to?
